CLERK: Mr. President, Health and Human Services reports on certain appointments to the Foster Care Review Board, page 1147 of the Journal.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Rasmussen.

SENATOR RASMUSSEN: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, the Health and Human Services Committee recommends to you three new members of the Foster Care Review Board, David Perlman, Christena Buttress and Bob Ide, all visited with the Health and Human Services Committee and represent people who have been active in advocacy for children as well as deep concerns for the well-being of young people in this state, and we would urge that you join the Health and Human Services Committee in confirming their appointment to the Foster Care Review Board.

SPEAKER BAACK: Thank you, Senator Rasmussen. Is there any discussion of the confirmation report? Seeing none, we will vote on the confirmation report. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the Health and Human Services Committee confirmation report.

SPEAKER BAACK: The confirmation report is adopted. We'll go to the next confirmation report by the Banking Committee.

CLERK: Banking Committee offers a report for certain appointments to the Research and Development Authority, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BAACK: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the Legislature. Unanimously the committee forwarded the nominations of Robert Allington, Lewis Harris, and Thomas Smith to the full body for acceptance as members or directors of the Research and Development Authority the RDA. Mr. Allington is the chief founding member of ISCO Company, which does scientific equipment here in Lincoln. Lewis Harris was the founder of Harris Labs in the thirties, and Thomas Smith is a cofounder of the Smith-Hayes Financial Company here in Lincoln. They were present, offered their resumes, were questioned by the committee, and were unanimously approved. I ask the body's approval for the confirmation for these gentlemen to the
